

ADOLPH SANGER DEAD

President of the Board of Education Succumbs to Pneumonia.

He Was a Graduate of the Columbia College Law School.

Once Made President of Board of Aldermen by Popular Vote.

Adolph L. Sanger, President of the Board of Education, died suddenly at his home, 50 East Sixty-third street, at 8:30 this morning.

The cause of death was heart failure, superinduced by pneumonia.

Mr. Sanger contracted a heavy cold about ten days ago, but he visited his law office at 115 Broadway every day and attended to his practice.

He paid but little attention to the cold, declaring when advised to remain at home that it would be of no use. It was not until Friday afternoon he was taken seriously ill, and was obliged to leave his office and go home. He went to bed at once and Dr. Adler was called and diagnosed the case as grip. He prescribed for the patient rest and warm.

When he returned Saturday morning he found Mr. Sanger much worse, the cold having developed into pneumonia. Dr. Stein was then called in consultation, but in spite of all the two physicians could do the patient grew weaker and rapidly worse until yesterday, when a slight improvement was observed.

None of the family entertained grave doubts as to his ultimate recovery until after midnight this morning, when he began to grow weaker and his respiration more labored.

Two hours later his brother, three daughters and law partner, Mr. S. Isaacs, were at his bedside. He appeared to be conscious, but unable to speak.

Just before the moment of dissolution he looked at those within the room, then closed his eyes and died.

Adolph L. Sanger was born in Batavia, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1842, and came to this city in 1862. He had lived here continuously since then, and achieved considerable distinction as a lawyer and public officer. He was graduated from Grammar School No. 45 in this city, and was a graduate of the College of the City of New York in the class of 1862.

Two years later Mr. Sanger secured his diploma as graduate from the Columbia College Law School and almost directly began a law partnership with Myer K. Hoffman.

Mr. Hoffman in 1870 appointed Mr. Sanger Commissioner of the United States Deposit Fund in politics.

Mr. Sanger had always been a consistent Democrat, and in 1885 he was elected President of the Board of Aldermen on the Democratic ticket by a plurality of 20,000 votes. He was the first President of the Board of Aldermen to be elected by popular vote.

During 1885 he was Chairman of the committee which introduced the French ordinance which brought the Bartholdi statue from France.

He was chosen a President of the Board of Aldermen in 1887, and in 1887 Mayor Hewitt appointed him a representative of the City of New York at the World's Fair in London.

Mr. Sanger was a widower. His wife was a daughter of Lionel C. Levy, of New York, and died twelve years ago.

Mr. Sanger held membership in a number of organizations in this city. He was one of the founders of the Grand Monument Association, and was its first president. He was also a member of the Board of Delegates of American Israelites, President of the Mount Washington Association, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Hebrew Union College.

Mr. Sanger was a faithful, conscientious official, and his death, I am sure, will be deplored by all who knew him.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen has been called for 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon to take action on Mr. Sanger's death.

GEORGE W. SAVAGE DEAD.

Former New Yorker, Lately United States Consul at Dundee.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Jan. 3.—George W. Savage, United States Consul at Dundee, Scotland, died to-day.

Mr. Savage was born at West Point, N. Y., in 1815. He was the first President of the Board of Directors of New York, representing the London Merchants' Association, and he also was instrumental in organizing the fire patrol of New York. He was President at various times of the International Star and Columbian Insurance Companies, and the father of the National Board of Underwriters. In 1860 he was appointed the first President of the London County Council, N. Y., by Gov. Oliver, and was also Drafting Commissioner during the late war under President Cleveland's administration. He served as Consul at Belfast, Ireland, and was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883. He was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883. He was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883.

He was twice married, leaving a widow and five grown up sons.

Died at Old Age.

(By Associated Press.)

MILFORD, Mass., Jan. 3.—Mrs. Elizabeth Green died last night, aged ninety-three. She was a sister of the late President of the United States Treasury, and a widow of the late Dr. H. B. C. Green, of Boston.

St. Louis Manufacturer Dead.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—William T. Haycock, generally known as a manufacturer of carriages, died here after a single day's illness. He was President of the Haycock Carriage Company, of Cincinnati, and chief of the firm of Haycock & Sons, here.

Weak Evidence Against Scofield.

William Scofield, of 288 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, arrested last night by Capt. Schmittberger and Detective Casey and Burns, of the Tenderloin Precinct, for running a game at 15 West Twenty-eighth street, was declared today that when arraigned in the Jefferson Street Police Court, Justice McMahon said there was not enough evidence to stand before a jury.

Local News in Brief.

Peter Drent, thirty-seven years old, a German on the Twenty-third street, fell overboard at 1 o'clock this morning, and was drowned. The body was recovered and sent to the Morgue.

Annie Lipkoff, of 3 Orchard street, charged Oscar Goodman, eighteen years old, of 27 Ludlow street, with attempting to steal her father's pillow. Goodman was held for trial.

DEATH OF COL. CLARKSON.

Heart Disease Carries Off the Well-Known Real Estate Man.

Veteran of the Late War and Prominent in Military Matters.

The sudden death of Col. Floyd Clarkson, ex-Commander of the G. A. R. of the State of New York, is announced to-day.

It occurred yesterday at 2 o'clock from heart disease at his residence, 48 East Sixty-sixth street.

Mr. Wilcox, his family physician, of 706 Madison avenue, was the only person present. Mrs. Clarkson being in Pittsburgh on a visit to her son, and the Misses Clarkson being at Morristown, N. J.

Col. Clarkson was born at his office, 19 Broadway, yesterday, but left early for home, not feeling well.

Floyd Clarkson was born in New York City in 1831. His great-grandfather, William Floyd, was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and Secretary of the Colony of New York.

Mr. Clarkson enlisted as a private in Company E, 10th New York, in 1857, and in April, 1861, and was made major of the Sixth New York Cavalry Nov. 11, 1861. In June, 1864, he was appointed Assistant Inspector-General on Brig.-Gen. Edward Holland's staff, and served until February, 1865. He resigned from the army April 30, 1865, and a year later he was brevetted Lieutenant-Colonel "for faithful services."

In 1878, Col. Clarkson opened a real-estate office at 39 Broadway, which business he carried on until his death. He was a member of the Society of the Potomac, of the Society of the Cumberland, and President of the Society of War Veterans of the Seventh Regiment. He was a life member of the St. Nicholas Historical and Antiquarian Society. In politics, he was a Republican.

When the Union Bank was organized in 1867, Col. Clarkson was chosen its President. He was a charter member of the Union Bank, and in 1887 was chosen Commander of the Department of New York, and re-elected in 1888. He was a member of the Union Bank, and in 1887 was chosen Commander of the Department of New York, and re-elected in 1888.

O. B. POTTER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

His Body Taken Home from the Democratic Club.

The body of Orlando B. Potter, the millionaire merchant and ex-Congressman, who was stricken down with apoplexy last evening on the sidewalk in Fifth avenue in front of the entrance of the Buckingham Hotel, lies to-day at his home at 3 East Fifty-seventh street.

Mr. Potter, who died at his home, in-law, was at the house early to-day, although he had only left it a few hours before to obtain some rest. He at once set about making the funeral arrangements.

He had not decided when seen whether Undertaker Hart, of the Cathedral, or Undertaker Partridge, of Grace Church, should have charge of the funeral. Mr. Potter said he expected to have the details completed late this afternoon.

It was taken there shortly after midnight from the billiard room of the Democratic Club, which is next to the Buckingham, by permission of Deputy Coroner O'Hara.

Mr. Potter was discovered lying on the sidewalk shortly after 9 o'clock by Night Clerk O'Hara, of the Buckingham. In falling he had struck the stone steps at the entrance of the hotel, and his face was cut and bleeding.

He was still breathing when he was carried into the basement of the Democratic Club, and three physicians, Dr. Peck, Dr. Yale and Dr. Hahner, immediately pronounced him dead, however, before they arrived. They pronounced the cause of death to be apoplexy.

Mr. Potter, who is a member of the Democratic Club of Governors of the Democratic Club, and three physicians, Dr. Peck, Dr. Yale and Dr. Hahner, immediately pronounced him dead, however, before they arrived. They pronounced the cause of death to be apoplexy.

Mr. Potter was seventy years old, and was born in Charlestown, Mass. His father was poor, and he worked his way through Williams' College by teaching. He afterwards studied at the Harvard Law School, and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar. He was in the same class with Rutherford B. Hayes.

After practicing law for twenty years in Boston he came to New York, and soon began to make money in real estate investments. Within a few years he had laid the foundation of the enormous fortune which he possessed at the time of his death. He was said to be worth $2,000,000.

He had always shown a great deal of public spirit, and was staunch Temperance. In 1873 he was first elected to Congress, and he served another term in 1880. He was formerly prominent in Tammany Hall, but of late years had been an enthusiastic admirer of Grover Cleveland.

He was a member of the Democratic, Manhattan, Reform, Commonwealth and National Clubs, and was also a member of the National Board of Underwriters. In 1860 he was appointed the first President of the London County Council, N. Y., by Gov. Oliver, and was also Drafting Commissioner during the late war under President Cleveland's administration. He served as Consul at Belfast, Ireland, and was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883. He was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883.

He was twice married, leaving a widow and five grown up sons.

Against Expressman Dunlap.

LAWYERS Alfred and Charles Stockler, in Superior Court, today recovered their client, Alex. P. & Co., $200 judgment against Connel Dunlap. The plaintiff was knocked down and injured by a freight express wagon, in Spring street, March 5, 1893.

St. Louis Manufacturer Dead.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—William T. Haycock, generally known as a manufacturer of carriages, died here after a single day's illness. He was President of the Haycock Carriage Company, of Cincinnati, and chief of the firm of Haycock & Sons, here.

Weak Evidence Against Scofield.

William Scofield, of 288 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, arrested last night by Capt. Schmittberger and Detective Casey and Burns, of the Tenderloin Precinct, for running a game at 15 West Twenty-eighth street, was declared today that when arraigned in the Jefferson Street Police Court, Justice McMahon said there was not enough evidence to stand before a jury.

Local News in Brief.

Peter Drent, thirty-seven years old, a German on the Twenty-third street, fell overboard at 1 o'clock this morning, and was drowned. The body was recovered and sent to the Morgue.

Annie Lipkoff, of 3 Orchard street, charged Oscar Goodman, eighteen years old, of 27 Ludlow street, with attempting to steal her father's pillow. Goodman was held for trial.

Scrofulous Swellings

of her neck and pains around her heart, with faint feelings, was the condition of my mother after the grip. She could not keep anything on her stomach, she decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she had taken one bottle the swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Bloomingdale's

3rd Ave. 59th &amp; 60th Sts.

Sale of Umbrellas.

Guaranteed Silk Umbrellas with Sterling Silver Handles, assorted designs, were $4.50; reduced to $2.98.

Engraving on same free of charge.

2.98

Reduced Prices

ON ACCOUNT ON INVENTORY.

$1.00 will buy $1.50 worth of Stationery.

$1.00 will buy $1.75 worth of Leather Goods.

$1.00 will buy $2.00 worth of Umbrellas.

$1.00 will buy $2.25 worth of Books.

$1.00 will buy $2.50 worth of Furs.

$1.00 will buy $2.75 worth of Jewelry.

$1.00 will buy $3.00 worth of Fancy Goods.

And so it goes. We make a determined effort to close out stocks. The person who has waited for the After-Holiday Reductions will find them here, beginning on Tuesday morning.

Bloomingdale Bros.,

3d Ave., 59th &amp; 60th Sts.

MOUNTED COPPERS IN TIGHTS

Park Policemen Don't Like the New Riding Breeches.

They Are Wanted to Last for Five Years, Too.

The members of the mounted force of the Park Police were arrayed in their new buckskin tights this morning.

They were a disgusted lot of policemen, too, for the new regulation breeches are too thin, too tight and altogether too English, you know.

Recently the Park Commissioners issued an order requiring all members of the mounted force to wear skintight gray buckskin riding breeches and gloves.

Mr. Potter, who is a member of the Democratic Club of Governors of the Democratic Club, and three physicians, Dr. Peck, Dr. Yale and Dr. Hahner, immediately pronounced him dead, however, before they arrived. They pronounced the cause of death to be apoplexy.

Mr. Potter was seventy years old, and was born in Charlestown, Mass. His father was poor, and he worked his way through Williams' College by teaching. He afterwards studied at the Harvard Law School, and was admitted to the Massachusetts bar. He was in the same class with Rutherford B. Hayes.

After practicing law for twenty years in Boston he came to New York, and soon began to make money in real estate investments. Within a few years he had laid the foundation of the enormous fortune which he possessed at the time of his death. He was said to be worth $2,000,000.

He had always shown a great deal of public spirit, and was staunch Temperance. In 1873 he was first elected to Congress, and he served another term in 1880. He was formerly prominent in Tammany Hall, but of late years had been an enthusiastic admirer of Grover Cleveland.

He was a member of the Democratic, Manhattan, Reform, Commonwealth and National Clubs, and was also a member of the National Board of Underwriters. In 1860 he was appointed the first President of the London County Council, N. Y., by Gov. Oliver, and was also Drafting Commissioner during the late war under President Cleveland's administration. He served as Consul at Belfast, Ireland, and was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883. He was made Consul at Dundee, Scotland, in 1883.

He was twice married, leaving a widow and five grown up sons.

Against Expressman Dunlap.

LAWYERS Alfred and Charles Stockler, in Superior Court, today recovered their client, Alex. P. & Co., $200 judgment against Connel Dunlap. The plaintiff was knocked down and injured by a freight express wagon, in Spring street, March 5, 1893.

St. Louis Manufacturer Dead.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—William T. Haycock, generally known as a manufacturer of carriages, died here after a single day's illness. He was President of the Haycock Carriage Company, of Cincinnati, and chief of the firm of Haycock & Sons, here.

Weak Evidence Against Scofield.

William Scofield, of 288 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, arrested last night by Capt. Schmittberger and Detective Casey and Burns, of the Tenderloin Precinct, for running a game at 15 West Twenty-eighth street, was declared today that when arraigned in the Jefferson Street Police Court, Justice McMahon said there was not enough evidence to stand before a jury.

Local News in Brief.

Peter Drent, thirty-seven years old, a German on the Twenty-third street, fell overboard at 1 o'clock this morning, and was drowned. The body was recovered and sent to the Morgue.

Annie Lipkoff, of 3 Orchard street, charged Oscar Goodman, eighteen years old, of 27 Ludlow street, with attempting to steal her father's pillow. Goodman was held for trial.

Scrofulous Swellings

of her neck and pains around her heart, with faint feelings, was the condition of my mother after the grip. She could not keep anything on her stomach, she decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she had taken one bottle the swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

swelling decreased. She continued regularly and has regained perfect health and strength. N. Y. Mrs. Thomas Stanton, Garverville, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Stern Bros.

will offer to-morrow

a special purchase

of

75 Dozen

Ladies' Black Ribbed

Lisle Thread

Hose

with colored

embroidered fronts

39c

Actual value 60c. a pair.

150 Dozen

Children's English Ribbed Black

Cashmere Hose

with double soles

25c

Actual value 35c. to 50c.

West 23d St.

TOMOTI HIS OWN DETECTIVE.

Caused Dry Goods Dealer Brasset's Arrest for Swindling.

Induced to Give Up $150 for a Ticket to Italy and "Safe-Keeping."

Andrew Brasset, fifty-eight, dry-goods dealer at 208 and 210 Spring street, was held for examination in Yorkville to-day on a charge of swindling. He was arrested by Detective Tomoti, twenty-one, of 208 West Twenty-eighth street, on Dec. 29 last.

Tomoti acted as his own detective. He caused Brasset's arrest last night by Detectives O'Donohue and Lantry, of the East Fifty-first street station.

Tomoti is a bright-looking Italian. He has been in this country but three years, and during that time saved about $400. A few months ago he determined to go back to Italy on a visit. On the night of Nov. 2, while walking along Second avenue, he met a fellow-countryman, who, although an entire stranger, made himself very friendly.

During their conversation Tomoti spoke of his intention of going back to Italy and that he had $400 in American money in his pocket. The chance acquaintance then remarked that he knew a man who could procure him a ticket for $30, which was less than one-half the regular price. Tomoti and the stranger then became very friendly.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

On stepping in the place, Tomoti recognized the supposed ticket scalper, from Tomoti now recognizes as the prisoner, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.

Tomoti was taken to a room at the Turtle Bay Hotel, kept by August Reiser, at 500 Second avenue, the bunco-steerer introduced him to a man in a dark suit, who was to take him to a safe-keeping place.